

WHAT THE AMLI OFFERS ITS INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS ~ 2018

Annual Meeting - held in the summertime where all members can discuss the latest issues in laboratory testing and advances in Clinical Immunology.

Committee Memberships - the membership is encouraged to participate in committees whose activities include Education, Regulatory Affairs, Membership, and Standards.

Meeting Registration Fee - AMLI Members have a lower Annual Meeting registration fee, as well as a lower Annual Dinner fee.

Online Membership Roster - contains a list of many individuals working in leading hospital, clinic, reference, and national testing laboratories who are experts in the wide variety of testing performed in today's busy clinical laboratories. The membership also includes professionals involved in the development and manufacture of diagnostic testing reagents and equipment.
